The United States Official Investigation of Baking Powders,

Made under authority of Congress by the Chief Chemist of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., shows the

to be a cream of tartar baking powder of the highest quality, superior to all others in strength, leavening power, and general usefulness.

The Royal Baking Powder is thus distinguished by the highest expert official authority the leading Baking Powder of the world.

Royal Baking Powder makes the finest, sweetest, lightest and most wholesome food. It goes further in use, and is more economical than any other.

A Photographer Disappears Mysteriously.

Some three weeks ago Mr. F. P. Wane, proprietor of the photograph gallery at the corner of Second and Shelby streets, placed an artist by the name of H. E. Hays in charge of the gallery and returned to his home in Lexington. On the 12th Hays disappeared, leaving his hat and some other wearing apparel at the gallery, and has never been heard of since. Mr. Wane is at a loss to know what has become of him—whether he has committed suicide by jumping in the river or left for parts unknown without letting anyone know of his intention. The first intimation Mr. Wane had that all was not right was contained in a letter from a customer inquiring about some work left there to be executed, and came to this city Tuesday afternoon to look into matters when he found the gallery closed, Hays gone and no trace of him to be found. Mr. Wane wishes his customers to know that he will be here next week and will reopen and run the gallery himself.

Council Proceedings.

A large crowd was drawn to the Council chamber at the regular meeting of the Common Council Tuesday night, as it was expected the members of the fire department would be elected and the policemen appointed for the ensuing year. An examination of the charter revealed the fact that the firemen elected last February, when the present council went into office, held their positions during the life of the body which elected them, and many applicants for places went away sorrowful.

The Mayor stated that it would be necessary to re-appoint the police force for the next year, and nominated for confirmation of the Council all of the old force except officer James Glanton, Mr. James Harp being substituted for him. The nominations were confirmed. The Finance Committee reported, a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the City Attorney to demand payment of Mr. Jno. T. Buckley the amount due the city for the Old Bridge, and if he refused to pay said sum to bring suit.

The Street Committee recommended a new pavement, curbing and gutter be put down at the intersection of Cross and Conway streets, and the spreading of 200 perch of rock on Steele street. The report was adopted.

An ordinance was presented by Mr. Williams providing for the increase of the pay of the police from $50 to $60 per month. Lost.

The Mayor called the attention of the Council to the fact that there were no rules or ordinance adopted by the Council for the government of the fire department, and the Ordinance Committee was directed to frame an ordinance.

Dr. L. M. Scott's bond as City Physician was received and approved.

The Council then adjourned to meet the second Tuesday in January.

We'll Bet a Cent

You will read this. It is to call your attention to the fact that Dr. Hale's Household Ointment is the finest remedy in the world for general use. It takes away pains at once. For cuts, burns, bruises, neuralgia and a hundred ailments one is apt to have. You want it in the house all the time, and after you have once tried it you won't be without it. 25 and 50 cents a box at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

The price of the "Old Bridge" Etchings has been reduced to $5. Only a few left.

Teacher's Bibles.

The finest line of teacher's Bibles ever brought to the city, and at prices lower than ever before offered, is to be found at Barrett's news depot.

A HUSTLER,

Is Mr. L. B. Weisenburg, of this City, and Is Kept Busy at All Times.

Mr. Louis B. Weisenburg, mill right of this city, some time ago put up a one hundred and fifty barrel roller flouring mill for the Bardtown Roller Mills Co., at Bardtown, Kentucky, and is now engaged in putting up a second mill at the same place for Mr. L. G. Shehan of sixty barrels capacity. He has just completed a one hundred and fifty barrel roller flouring mill for Messrs. Mason Bros. & Co., at Sonora, Ky., and has contracts to place hydraulic power plants for Messrs. Ramboe & Hockensmith, at Peak's Mill, this county, and for Messrs. Franklin Bros., at Orr, Anderson county, having already built a seventy-five barrel roller flouring mill for the latter firm. He is a quiet, gentlemanly young man, who does not make much noise in the world, but is getting there right along.

Back in the School.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held on Tuesday evening, Miss Margaret A. Lewis was elected, over a dozen other applicants, assistant teacher in the High School department to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Miss Sadie Grant. Miss Lewis is thoroughly qualified for the position, having been a teacher in one of the lower grades of the school for ten years and devoted much time and expense to fitting herself for higher education. She will enter upon the discharge of her duties at the beginning of the session after the holidays.

Dyspepsia

Isn't pleasant nor is it necessary. Dr. Hale's Household Tea will cure it. We have a great many testimonials from people who say it has absolutely cured them. It is pleasant to take and cost only 25c and 50c a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The meeting held in the Baptist Church Monday evening in the interest of the permanent organization of the Y. M. C. A. was a very successful one.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock with the President McKenzie R. Todd in the chair. After devotional exercises the President, with a few remarks, introduced Mr. Henry E. Rosevear State Secretary, who detailed the purposes and advantage derived by such an organization in our city. The plans for securing headquarters with gymnasium, with baths, etc., were discussed and the following resolutions were offered and passed by a unanimous vote.

WHEREAS, The young men of Frankfort, Ky., are without a place of resort where opportunity is offered for physical, mental, social and spiritual culture, and

WHEREAS, The Young Men's Christian Association as at present operated in most of the cities and towns of our country is largely supplying such a need, therefore, we, the young men of Frankfort, favor the organization of such an association in our city, to include the following features:

1. Physical—A well equipped gymnasium with baths and instructions, with outdoor sports in season.

2. Mental—A reading room supplied with the best current literature, educational classes in practical branches, and course of plain talks and lectures.

3. Social—Parlor and reception room, well furnished, provided with games and music, and social receptions.

4. Religious—Young Men's Meeting, Bible and Training classes for those who desire them.

5. Membership—To be of two general classes: Active—Any young man who is a member in good standing of a Protestant Evangelical Church; Associate—Any young man of good character.

6. Management—The whole to be in charge of a competent secretary, under the direction of a small board of managers, of business men, who shall have control of policy and finances. We subscribe our names for membership in such an association, if organized, agreeing to pay the amount opposite our names (not less than $5.00 each), payable when called for after Jan. 1, 1895; this to entitle us to all privileges for one year from day of opening, and this not to be binding on us until 250 names of young men are subscribed hereto.

After the adoption of the resolutions, an invitation was given for the young men to sign the resolutions and about 50 responded. This organization should be supported by all the young men of our city and thus place Frankfort in line with other cities in our State. When you are asked to sign the agreement be sure and do so and thus insure its success.

100,000 People Die

Annually in this country of consumption. Think of it? One adult out of every six, and yet in the early stages all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure. It is a certain remedy for coughs and colds which if left to themselves bring on pulmonary consumption. Pleasant to take. Children like it. The price is right, only 25 and 50 cents a bottle at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

Frankfort College.

The excellent entertainment given last evening in the chapel rooms of the college consisted of select recitations, a sword drill, tableaux and music. The program called for recitation by Miss Spaight, "Perdita," and two minuets. The Charge of the Light Brigade, with sword drill by sixteen young ladies in military costume, Miss Ethel Crutcher, captain. Tableaux, Poses Plastique, representing "Death of Virginia," "In Sight of Home," "Farewell to Home," "Dance of the Muses," "Adorning the Bride" and A Charm from the Skies." Vocal duet, Misses Harriette L. Baumes and Ethel Dixon. Guitar trio, Prof. Brady, Misses Jennie Baumes and Dike Hazelrigg. Instrumental duet, Misses Elizabeth Hazelrigg and Ethel Crutcher and other renditions in music.

Slipped on Frost.

Mrs. Dudley Baker was walking in the back yard, at her home on Arlington Heights, early Tuesday morning, and stepping upon a plank covered with frost, slipped and fell to the ground, breaking her left arm and hip. Medical assistance was at once summoned and both fractures reduced, but Mrs. Baker will be confined to bed for a long time. The family is peculiarly unfortunate, as only a few weeks ago Mr. Baker had his livery stable destroyed by fire and was thus thrown out of business.

Fire Thursday Night.

The alarm of fire Thursday evening about 7 o'clock was occasioned by the burning of a small frame building in the alley back of the Brewery. The house belonged to Mrs. Petry and was occupied by a colored woman by the name of Taylor. The house and contents were completely consumed, and the poor negro lost everything but what she had on. She had only a few minutes before left home and taken her child with her.

To be Mustered To-night.

Col. E. H. Gaither, of the Second Regiment Kentucky State Guard, will to-night muster into the State service the new military company organized in this city. The members of the new organization will assemble at the Court House at 7:30 for the purpose.

Death Came Suddenly.

Mr. James Fitzpatrick, an old and well-known resident of this city, died at his room on Broadway Thursday morning, after a few hours illness with rheumatism of the heart, aged 74 years. He was an Irishman by birth but had spent the greater portion of his life in this city. His funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 from the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The New Men.

The precinct meetings held last Saturday to select committeemen to fill the vacancies in the Democratic County Committee, made the following recommendations for appointment by the State Central Committee: Bridge, Fred Gordon; Market House, Dr. H. L. Tobin; Bellepoint, S. T. Pence; Crutcher's School House, Hiram Jett; Harvileland, Van D. Harrod; Peak's Mill, John Scott.

In Full Blast.

The great Lexington Exposition and Midwinter Fair open on Tuesday and all those of our citizens who have seen it pronounce it a first class exhibition and one well worth a trip to that city to see. It is not, of course, gotten up as grand a scale, but what they have is fully equal to the World's Fair at Chicago last year.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home. For sale by PHIL. CARPENTER, South Side Drugist."

THE NEW F. F. V. LIMITED

Commencing Sunday, May 13th, the F. F. V. Limited will leave Cincinnati daily at 12.20 noon, arriving at Washington at 7.40 a. m., Baltimore 9.00 a. m., Philadelphia 11.20 a. m. and New York 1.40 p. m. The train will consist of Composite Car, Elegant Day Coach, with Smoking Compartment, Dining Car, Pullman Sleeping Cars of the latest and most improved design, and an Observation Car. Emphasis is especially placed on the Observation Car. Built by the Pullman Company from Chesapeake and Ohio plans, the F. F. V. Observation Cars serve their purpose better than any others that have ever been constructed.

As the F. F. V. Limited is the only train having an Observation Car attached, it necessarily follows that the Chesapeake and Ohio R'y alone has scenery interesting enough to demand an Observation Car. The F. F. V. Limited is the only train running through from Cincinnati to New York that enables the business men to transact business in Cincinnati one day and New York the next. It is the only train for Jersey City Coast resorts, which are reached by the F. F. V. at dinner time instead of in the evening. It is the only train that enables business men to transact business in Cincinnati one day and reach Washington for breakfast the next morning. It is the most desirable train for New England resorts, connections being made in the Union Depot in Washington with the Colonial Express running through to Boston which reaches New Haven 4:10 p. m., New London 5:30 p. m., Providence 7:15 p. m. and Boston 8:30 p. m. The F. F. V. is the only modern train lighted throughout with Electricity, carrying a Dining Car and an Observation Car.

The Washington and Atlantic Express, also an Electric Lighted Vestibuled train, will leave Cincinnati at 7:00 p. m., reaching Washington 2:40 p. m. and Old Point Comfort 6:00 p. m. Connection is made at Washington with the Boston Express or the Limited, reaching New York about 9:00 p. m. At Norfolk connection is made with the Old Dominion Steamship Line, reaching New York 3:00 p. m. the next day.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Jonathan Knight, of this County, Expires After a Few Minutes Illness.

Mr. Jonathan Knight, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of the Bloomington precinct, died suddenly at his home Sunday afternoon, in the 80th year of his age. He had been doing some chores about the house and complained of a pain in his shoulder when one of the family applied a liniment, which did not give relief and he was gotten to bed. In a very few minutes after lying down he was a corpse. The physician called in pronounced the trouble rheumatism of the heart. Mr. Knight had spent most of his life in this county, was a good neighbor and an honest, upright citizen whose loss is deeply felt by the community in which he lived.

Where to Put Your Money
When you put your money where it will give a sure return, invest in the stock of the People's Homestead and Saving Association, as this is one of the best managed Building and Loan Associations in the State and is the only one which has ever matured three classes of stock and paid it off at par six months in advance of the time advertised for it to pay out. Class N in the association will be opened on the first of January, and if you wish to lay by your money by paying in a small amount weekly, and receive a good rate of interest, this is a safe place to put it. The association does not care to sell more than two hundred and fifty shares of stock in this class and if you want to get in, it will be well to subscribe now.

Engles Colliery.
Freeman, of Ducker Station neighborhood, and his niece, Miss Rosa Freeman, of Texas, were driving into town Monday afternoon and on the hill near the Arsenal met another buggy containing two ladies who did not give enough road, and Mr. Freeman, having but one hand, could not guide his horse skillfully, and the wheels of the two buggies came together. Mr. Freeman's buggy was upset and he and his niece thrown out. He escaped injury but Miss Freeman fell upon her head and shoulder and was severely bruised up. The ladies in the other buggy never stopped, but drove on, and it is supposed no damage was done to their vehicle.

Going South Again.

Mr. Robert W. Tilford, who for the past year has had charge of the South Side Drug Store of Messrs. LeCompte & Co., has resigned his position and left yesterday for his home in Greenville, Mississippi, to join his family. Bob is one of the most popular young men who ever lived in this city and carries with him to his southern home the best wishes of a host of friends for his future prosperity. He has been succeeded by Mr. O. B. Gayle, who has entered upon the duties of pharmacist, and is assisted temporarily by Mr. Hervey Berryman.

The Superior Court Dead.

The Superior Court held its last session on Tuesday and adjourned sine die, its term of existence expiring on the last of this month. Presiding Judge Brent will return to the practice of law at Paris. Judge Barbour will do the same at New Castle, while Judge Yost will locate in this city and practice principally before the Court of Appeals.

JOHN BOYD THACHER A WITNESS.

He Fully Verifies a Disputed World's Fair Award.

John Boyd Thacher is laconic and decisive in his statements. During the lively campaign just closed in New York, this marked him especially as chairman of the Democrat State Committee. It was equally true of him as chairman of the Executive Committee on Awards at the World's Fair. This is the positive and sententious way in which he verifies in an official letter, the honors won by Dr. Price's Baking Powder: "I herewith enclose you an official copy of your award, which in due time will be inscribed in the diploma and forwarded." Thus the question respecting the award, raised by an envious New York rival, is settled beyond cavil. This same rival by the way is widely advertising an award for itself. The official records prove this claim wholly false as they show the New York pretender was not so much as an exhibitor at the World's Fair.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 22, 1894.

Extracts from Rev. B. Fay Mills' Sermons Delivered in this City.

We thought that a few of the pithy sayings of each sermon preached by Mr. Mills to this community would be acceptable, therefore, we offer them in our columns.

TENTH SERMON.

Text—The Master is come and calleth for Thee.

Reasons why the resurrection of Lazarus is like a revival.

1. It is an important matter. Death is always an important matter. Men turn from business or from social matters when a friend dies. During a revival our friends are in danger of hardening their hearts by refusing to listen to the calling of the spirit. A time of opportunity is always a time of peril. The deserted streets and closed business houses on this mid-week Sabbath means that men sympathize with the momentous question of the hour. Mary and Martha sent a messenger to Jesus, that was a mistake. Do not depend upon others to do your work in time of revival. Manifest an interest in your friends and neighbors who can reach them. I never saw a natural interest among men who were concerned about their fellows. They are always excited somewhat.

2. Come and see where they laid him, the sisters said, not go and see. Come is the revival word. I see some who are using it and some who do not use it.

3. Why do not men accept the invitation? There is a stone in the way. The stone of pride, of worldliness, of avarice, of unholy business, of bitterness of heart, of indifference. Many people are waiting for you to get right, then they will get right. I have seen some people here trying to get off the grave clothes from a Lazarus dead in sin. I see some who make no effort. Friends, help all within your reach. A time of revival is not a time for formality.

ELEVENTH SERMON.

Text—We stumble at the noon-day as in the night.

The Jews had lived in the noon-day of history but they had forsaken God and hardened their hearts.

1. People stumble to-day. God may hold you responsible for being a citizen of the United States. It is an awful thing for a man to drink in the blessings of Christianity in a Christian land and refuse its blessings. Oh! the baseness of the sin of ingratitude!

2. You who are cherishing a secret hope for entering the kingdom without confessing Christ with your lips are stumbling in the noon-day as in the night. There is no other way than through confession, open confession. You are stumbling if you wait for a Christian experience before confessing Christ.

3. You who are church members and who pass through a time like this without great concern and without effort to save some unconverted friend, are stumbling in the noon-day as in the night.

4. He who has no concern about his own soul is stumbling in the noon-day as in the night. It is easy at a time like this to ask forgiveness.

5. There is no excuse for anyone present to stumble longer at the noon-day. The very air is vocal with the spirit of Jesus. Others are waiting for you to move. A small steamer ran upon a bar in the Mississippi river, when a large boat passed, making great waves and floated it off the bar. Some one is waiting for you to pass by, Jesus of Nazareth is now passing by for you. Will you accept his help?

TWELFTH SERMON.

After reading Matthew 25, Mr. Mills said—"My subject is a solemn one; whether a man can be spiritually dead and be spiritually alive.

Text—They would not believe, therefore they could not believe. A three-fold cord is not easily broken. The text gives three-fold testimony.

1. It is the testimony of the book of God.

2. It is the testimony of Science.

3. It is the testimony of Observation.

1. If God had kept back some condition, man would have some excuse for refusing to believe. All conditions are known. Opportunity is the story of the Bible from beginning to end. The wise avail themselves of opportunities. There is an unpardonable sin—that of resisting the influence of the Spirit of God, the sin against the Holy Ghost. Sin against the Son or the Father may be pardoned, but the sin against the Holy Ghost is unpardonable. Esau's birthright which he sold was his spiritual claims. There is a sin unto death.

2. The testimony of science shows the analogy of God's workings in nature with his workings upon the human soul. In the bottom of the ocean there are the same kind of fish as at the surface, but being in darkness they are blind. Men harden their hearts and lose sight of God's truths in the same manner. The laws of nature are inviolable. Sow thought and you reap acts; sow acts and you reap habits; sow habits and you reap character; sow character and you reap destiny. By refusing to believing there will come a time when you cannot believe.

3. Observation testifies that in many instances unbelievers die easily, they have no fear of punishment, their death bed scenes are not horrible. In many instances this is true, but those persons die as the dog dies, without hope, without comfort, all is blank before them.

Said a person to me—"I am afraid there is no pardon for me." If you desire Christ to pardon you, you are yet pardonable. The spirit is pleading with you whenever you feel sorrow that you are a sinner.

THIRTEENTH SERMON.

Text—Let the wicked man forsake his sin. I see some of you settle back as if you were not to be spoken to this morning. Two-thirds of my sermons have been to the church members and this one is for you.

Let us first settle who the wicked are.

1. A man is wicked who is not as good as he can be. Paul shook the viper from his wrist and became the leader of the people. Friends, we must shake off the vipers from our wrists if we expect to lead others.

2. The text applies to the backslider. He is not usually a bad person. The Bible treats with great tenderness the one who backslides. Two-thirds of it is written to backsliders. I never saw a happy backslider.

3. The text applies to the moralist and self-righteous man. You can measure this man by his words, of which there are many.

4. It applies to the man who criticizes the church. Whether his criticism be just or unjust, in making it he invites God to judge him by a stricter standard. Men, O men, have the courage of your convictions, forsake your ways and do right.

5. The text applies to a man who will say wicked things about the church willfully. To strike a mother in the face is a shameful act, but it is an act of manliness compared with the act of one who strikes God in the face by saying wicked things of his church.

But a light brightens the background. Let the wicked forsake his way—and further on we read, He will have mercy upon him and will abundantly pardon. What sins? Scarlet sins. Did he say scarlet sins? He cleanseth from all sin. O friend, bring your sin, your enemy, and lay it upon God's altar and forsake it.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF THE WORLD'S FAIR AWARD TO Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

JOHN BOYD THACHER, Chairman of the Executive Committee on Awards at the Columbian Exposition, writing from Washington, D. C., to the Price Baking Powder Company, says:

"I herewith enclose you an official copy of your award, which in due time, will be inscribed in the Diploma, and forwarded to your address, unless otherwise indicated by you."

Thus are the honors awarded
Dr. Price's Baking Powder
at the World's Fair fully verified.

On the other hand the claims to awards at the Fair by a New York Baking Powder are proven wholly false. Official records show it was not even an exhibitor. Was it because it contained Ammonia?

Deaths.

CRUTCHER—Mrs. Susan A. Crutcher, formerly of this county, died in Lexington Thursday, and the remains will be brought here this morning for interment, the funeral taking place from the Christian Church at 10:30 this morning. The deceased was the widow of the late Dr. W. L. Crutcher.

EBERHARDT—Mrs. Elizabeth French Eberhardt died at the home of her parents, near the Forks of Elkhorn, Tuesday night, after a lingering illness. The deceased was the wife of Rev. J. W. Eberhardt and a daughter of Mr. J. W. French, of this county. Early last summer she went to North Carolina in hopes the climate would benefit her health, but failed to receive relief and returned here to die at the home of her childhood. Her funeral took place Thursday morning from her father's residence.

HAWKINS—Mr. Bernard Hawkins died Saturday last week at his home near Cedar Chapel, this county, and the funeral took place Sunday. The deceased was a brother-in-law of Messrs. W. J. and J. W. Hughes, of this city, and was a good, substantial citizen of the Farmdale neighborhood. His wife preceded him to the grave last March.

RODMAN—Mrs. Rodman, wife of Dr. James Rodman, formerly of this city, died at the residence of her husband in Hopkinsville on Thursday. Col. Thomas Rodman left yesterday morning to attend the funeral.

WALCUTT—Mrs. Annie Brown Walcutt died at her home, "Windsy Side," near this city, Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock, aged 67 years, after an illness of about two weeks. The deceased was the widow of the late Captain John Walcutt and was born and raised in Columbus, Ohio. She leaves one son, her only child, Mr. Dellano B. Walcutt, of county, to mourn her loss.

The "Varsity" Musicians.

The University of Virginia Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs who last year won for themselves so much praise and congratulation on their tour throughout the West and South, are the principal attraction booked at the Opera House for Xmas week.

They will reach Frankfort over the L. & N. from Lexington about nine o'clock on the morning of December 28th and will be met at the depot by a committee of the local alumni, who will take them in charge for the day. The concert will begin promptly at 8:15 and will consist of three parts of six members each.

In all three clubs there are about forty students, among them Mr. M. W. Pope, the star full-back of last year's victorious football team, and the President of the clubs; and the hero of the gridiron also accompanies the clubs. Mr. Saunders Taylor, whom King, Princeton's great quarter, said could not be excelled on the football field. Mr. Andie Barthie, the baritone, who made such a great reputation last year, will also be with the boys, and all who hear him will feel fully repaid for their trouble.

Taken altogether the University Clubs will give a concert which we are confident will be equal to that of any college clubs in the country, and we advise all who love to hear good music by purely amateurs to take advantage of the occasion and give the boys from Virginia a crowded house.

She Committed Suicide.

Mrs. F. C. Cone, at Paris, left this letter: "My husband—Forgive me if I cause you trouble, but I suffer so. You do not know what these long wretched, wretched nights are to me, and I am so tired, darling—the pain will never be better. It is not easy to take my own life, but I have been sick so long. Goodbye, my husband. I love you—your wife." This is one of the thousands that gives up, instead of using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and being speedily cured of their wretchedness. Get Dr. J. W. Gayle and get an elegant book and trial bottle free.

Preaches To-morrow.

The friends of Rev. E. O. Guerrant, D. D., will have an opportunity of hearing this splendid preacher to-morrow, as he will fill the pulpit of Rev. D. Clay Lilly at the Southern Presbyterian Church, at both the morning and evening services.

It's a Mistake

To neglect caring for a cough or cold Every time you cough you increase the trouble and soon an inflammation is started that in a short time is difficult to control. Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure has such a magic effect upon a cough, allaying all irritation so quickly that every person in the land should always have a bottle of this wonderful medicine on hand to begin taking at once upon the first appearance of a cold. It costs only 25c and 50c a bottle at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

CRUTCHER & STARKS

School District No. 34.

Editor Roundabout:

Sometime since we called attention to the ignorance of our trustees in regard to the school laws, and I am sorry to say the chairman of the board of trustees in our district is also wanting in the knowledge to fill out a blank form to levy a tax for school purposes.

You should see the notices to appreciate them. I took one of them down and carried it, as a curiosity, to the office of Public Instruction and had a copy of it made. They are worthless as far as serving the purpose for which they were intended. They were posted the first of the month, and our school nearly out, too, and call for a poll tax of sixty cents on each male 21 years old in this district and a levy of sixty cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of taxable property in district.

Now as to the poll tax, the chairman's object is to collect this for incidental expenses, which can only be collected of the patrons of the schools.

As to the tax on property the limit of the law is only twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of property in any one year.

The chairman was kind enough to say in his notice that he gave us five months to pay it in, which is a month longer than the law allows.

I have been looking over the last report of our State Superintendent, and I find it is not in our district only, but in nearly all the districts, that trustees will not do their duty; and starting them in the face is Sec. 91 of school law, page 52, which says:

"If any person who is elected or appointed trustee of a common school under the provisions of this act shall willfully fail or neglect, after having accepted said office, to perform the duties imposed upon him herein, he shall be fined fifty dollars therefor."

Any interested party may go before the grand jury, and it is a duty required by law of the various county superintendents to report neglect of trustees to the grand jury.

The law requires each district to have a treasurer to collect all taxes for school purposes. Why was a treasurer not appointed at the first of the school year and a levy made sufficient to raise money enough to have a fence built around our school-house and to buy coal enough to do during the school, and to build a coal-house, and not throw the coal in one corner of school-house, where the dirt from which keeps the children with a burnt cork appearance.

And by the way, the county had to pay nearly all the expenses to build the school-house, as the trustees would not levy and collect a tax to pay for same, but went before the County Court and by some "hook or crook" got an appropriation as though the district was a pauper one, and some in the boundary at the time worth twenty or thirty thousand dollars. But so it goes. We are always ready to rob the county or State, which reminds us of the lumber which was left over from building our school house, some four or five hundred feet of first class pine flooring.

One of the trustees hauled it home and stored it in his barn and while he was away from home a few days after, trustee No. 2, went with his team and hauled it all away; and to make it secure from possibly trustee No. 5, he nailed it down by repairing his old floors with it.

The chairman-to-be, next year, will conduct the affairs of the district in a more businesslike manner, we think.

Be sure to get one of "Bridge" Etchings if all gone.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURETT, LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,994 hhds., with receipts for the same period of 1,139 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 151,290 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1993 on our market to this date amount to 146,711 hhds.

The sales on our market this week embraced 716 hhds. of new burley tobacco and there was a decided improvement in the quality of the offerings over previous weeks with an increased demand for the medium, good and fine grades. A great many hhds. were sold during the week at prices ranging from $9 to $12 with frequent sales at prices ranging from $12 to $14, and several hhds. sold from $16 to $17, the latter prices being the highest yet realized for the new crop. The market was stronger throughout the week for the better grades of old burley and decidedly stronger for common grades with high color.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1993 crop):

J. W. Fairbanks,

Postmaster at Mankato, Neb., writes us as follows: "I have taken but one package of your Dr. Hale's Household Tea and it is the first medicine I have found that has done me any good. For 30 years I have been troubled with liver and kidney troubles, growing worse all the time. For the last 10 years I have not been able to do much or any work. I feel dull, listless and as though I could not eat. My bowels would not move oftener than once a week. After taking one package I am much better and now can take hold and work. Have a good appetite and bowels regular. For dyspepsia, constipation, all liver and kidney troubles, etc., it has no equal. Only 35c. and 50c. a package. I. CARPENTER'S drug store, a
